PFH research results for Family Ship Manifestoes:

☐		Fred (M) Ve searched 1) Baltimore, MD 2) Boston, MA 3) New York, NY 4) Philadelphia, PA 5) New Orleans, LA 6) Bristol, RI and 7) New Haven, CT. - No Results . But we have more options to try.
☐		Henry (O) Ve searched 1) Baltimore, MD 2) Boston, MA 3) New York, NY 4) Philadelphia, PA 5) New Orleans, LA 6) Bristol, RI and 7) New Haven, CT. - No Results . But we have more options to try.
☐		www.ancestry.com lists an Albert Piotraschke entering America through New York City. Ve truly thought it was Albert Fred (NY). However, it proved to be a different Albert, perhaps Albert of MI?
☒		On 2007 PFH Ship Manifest Search through results for the M Family of William & Theresa! William's manifest can be viewed at www.archives.gov —but search under the misspelling "Piotroski"
☐		Albert (VI) National Archives located a record that they feel may be Albert arriving in Baltimore, MD on April 10, 1892. The record was ordered and we are now waiting to match up the information.
☒		Gustave (M) entered through Ellis Island 1898 . Gus' manifest can be viewed at www.ellisland.com but the document is a partial scan. So we will purchase the document while visiting the island.
☒		Herman (VI) entered through Ellis Island 1902 . Herman's full manifest can be viewed at www.ellisland.com and a fine display of information is provided in this document.

Thank you Jodie Tuddenham and Jessie Hanson for handling all the National Archives search forms.

Many family members living today have seen their parents farm, using horse drawn equipment, rode in Model T's, and danced to the "50's & 60's"

Their stories are now being preserved to help influence & bless our future generations who'll soon be carrying on our legacy.

Now may be the best time to share your legacies as we prepare to pass the baton.

Mariusz Baar

Many grave stones are visible on the website of Mariusz Baar:

The screenshot shows the Facebook Advertising interface. At the top, the Facebook logo is visible. Below it, a green banner reads: "Facebook Advertising: Facebook's ad platform, with tools to create, target, and measure ads across Facebook, Messenger, and Instagram." The main content area is titled "Facebook Advertising" and contains a form with several input fields. The "Audience" tab is selected, and the "Audience" field is highlighted with a blue box. Below the "Audience" field, there is a link that says "Learn more about Facebook Audience". At the bottom of the page, there is a footer with the text "© 2015 Facebook Inc. All rights reserved. Privacy Policy Terms of Service" and a link to "Facebook Advertising" on the right.

In our family research, we are not there more here because we not had the time to visit an archive, but perhaps still a miracle happens and the lost church records of Charbrow can be found.

It has often been stated that birth records of the Pommern area were destroyed during WWII bombings. Yet, the Pomeranian society for family history located in Berlin claims that a society was created to preserve & collect the records of Pomerania in a central repository in West Germany. -From a letter to John Peterson from the Pomerania society for Heraldry & Family History—see scanned copy below:
- See scanned copy below.

A society was created to preserve and collect the records of Pomerania in a central repository in West Germany. Existing records are being copied, private collections and family documents are being solicited by the society to fill the void the researcher feels when working on a Pomeranian family line. The address of this organization is:

Chicago's Mysterious Cook County Piotraschkas

This amazing Piotraschke melting pot found in Chicago holds Internet recordings of Johanna Ernestine who is the wife of Heinrich of the OH Homestead.

There are also Minnesota Family notes of the MN family spending some time in Illinois & Fredrika knowingly lived on the border of Cook County in Lombard.

This mysterious Chicago Piotraschke melting pot hasn't been recorded living in Chicago since 1930's.

Old Missouri Family notes record that Fred's brother, Adolph, settled in South America. Perhaps Bill will stumble across some family members while in the area.
